CONFERENCE IN NEW YORK
SENATOR GORMAN PLEASSED
WITH THE SITUATION.

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—A phenomenal rain storm which began yesterday and continued all night threatened to cause a postponement of the Odd Fellows' parade, the chief public feature of the week's celebration, which has been coincident with the meeting of the sovereign grand lodge. This morning, however, the sun broke through the clouds and the pavements were soon dry enough to permit of marching without serious discomfort.

Brigadier General E. H. Black acted as grand marshal, and promptly on time the parade started on its course through the streets lined with thousands of spectators. The line was composed of fourteen divisions and included many floats of attractive design. At the head of the column was a platoon of mounted police, followed by a detachment of the patriots' militia, acting as an escort to Grand Sire John B. Goodwin and other officers and representatives of the sovereign grand lodge. Then came a strong body of patriots' militia, under the command of General M. A. Ramey, members of visiting California cantons being commanded by Brigadier General H. O. Brewster. There were many floats which vied with each other in soldierly appearance and precision of movement.

Then followed in succession, subordinate and Rebekah lodges, the first place being given to the representatives of Alameda county, who were followed by members from Santa Clara and Sacramento counties. A float containing fifty inmates of the Odd Fellows' orphan home attracted much attention. The San Francisco came next, turning out several thousand strong.

Officers and members of the grand encampment and of subordinate encampments composed the tenth division, the remaining divisions being made up of regular and Rebekah lodges, the officers of the grand lodge and Rebekah assemblies and veteran members of the order.

Prominent features of the parade were drill corps from several encampments and Rebekah lodges, whose intricate evolutions were loudly applauded. The parade was reviewed in front of the city hall by Grand Sire Goodwin and other officers of the sovereign grand lodge and the grand encampment of California met in the Odd Fellows building.

As the parade was passing along Van Ness avenue, E. A. Bauber, one of the marching men, dropped dead, presumably of heart disease. He was a paymaster's clerk at the Mare Island navy yard, and resided at Vallejo.

BOGUS CITIZENS.
Italians Fraudulently Naturalized in New York.

New York, Sept. 23.—The secret service detectives today arrested Sebastian Farnacello, a clerk in the first municipal court, on charges of selling bogus federal naturalization certificates. The secret service men said the arrest might lead to sensational developments tending to expose the head of the syndicate which for several years has been supplying Italians with papers.

A WIFE'S CONFESSION.
Of course every one knew when they were engaged and every one pretended to be surprised when they heard of her sudden broken engagement. It was first said she had broken it because she had changed her heart, but finally she confessed that she had been so irritable, so depressed and blue that she had driven him away. Her good looks were vanishing. She was getting pale, and hollow-cheeked, with dark circles around her eyes. Suddenly all society was pleased again to hear of the engagement being renewed, and it was not long before a beautiful and radiant bride was taken to the altar. She had regained her good looks, her former happy disposition and strong nerve all through Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which made two more lives happy and a radiant bride more beautiful than she had ever appeared before.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform success, such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the prepared, and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $50 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

Mrs. O. S. O'Sullivan, of Prescott, Ariz., writes: "For nearly two years I was a great sufferer with leucorrhoea and enlargement of the womb and suffered severely with dyspepsia and was run down a perfect wreck. I doctored for several years, got no better, until about seven months ago I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and in a few days I felt better. I can now eat my food and work hard. I feel like a new woman and shall always recommend this medicine to all who are suffering in any way."

Nothing But Politics.
Washington, Sept. 23.—President Roosevelt appeared today at his desk in the executive offices. The cabinet meeting today was devoted principally to an informal discussion of the political situation. Only four members were present.

New York, Sept. 23.—Contrary to expectations, Alton B. Parker was unable to complete his conferences with political leaders tonight and he will start for home tomorrow. More visitors were admitted to Parker's apartments at the Hoffman house today than yesterday, but he found it possible to take some recreation. He took a long walk before breakfast and tonight he walked from the hotel to the Manhattan club, where he dined.

Among the callers today were James K. Jones of Arkansas, William S. Coward of Missouri, James S. Hogg and Senator Culberson of Texas, and other leaders.

Senator Gorman was with Judge Parker for more than an hour. They went over the details of the campaign and agreed that the canvass should be put under way without delay and be conducted in an energetic manner. DARING THIEF PUT TO FLIGHT AT MUZZLE OF AMMONIA BOTTLE

A burglar with a sensitive olfactory nerve was put to rout at an early hour yesterday morning at the point of an empty ammonia bottle. The home of George S. Kimball, 24 North State street, was broken into about 2 o'clock in the morning, and Mr. Kimball, who was in the house, was aroused by the sound of some one moving the furniture in the next room. He was out off from communicating with the telephone, and also from the outside except for a small portico. Realizing his predicament, he made a dash for the window, and grasping the ammonia bottle firmly in his right hand, he shouted to the intruder to know what he wanted.

"If you don't keep quiet in there," came the response, "I'll kill you."

"If you don't get out of there, I'll kill you," was the reply of Mr. Kimball, and, thrusting the bottle against the door, he made a dash for the window, and across the way he heard the commotion, and two men with guns ran across to the Kimball house while a summer expedition for the police. As Mr. Beamer, a neighbor, reached the gate leading to the rear of the Kimball's house, his gun, a neighbor, was discharged so frightened the burglar that he made his escape.

Nothing was taken from the house, but, with the exception of the room in which he had slept so well, the entire house had been ransacked, and dresses, and wraps to the value of many hundreds of dollars, were scattered in heaps on the floor. Mr. Kimball, while duly grateful to his neighbors for their assistance feels that he owes his life to the ammonia bottle.

TOM WATSON SPOUTS Populist Candidate For Presi- dent Making Campaign in Texas.

Houston, Tex., Sept. 23.—Thomas E. Watson, Populist candidate for president, tonight delivered an address to a great crowd of people assembled from the surrounding country, several ex-couriers being present. Mr. Watson is still suffering from an indisposition and appeared weak. He was given close attention. Mr. Watson said:

"If our campaign hurts the Democrats, most this year that he stands for. It is the fault of Jones and all the others who sold out the principles of the Democracy to Wall street at St. Louis. Had Senator Jones and his crowd reaped the Omaha platform, or something similar, and then nominated some real Democrat, as Hearst or Bryan, the People's party would have done business in 1904 at all. It is the astounding betrayal of Democratic principles by Jones, Hill & Co., which save the People's party the opportunity to renew the fight for Jeffersonian Democracy. Inasmuch as we are now advocating the same principles which Bryan Democrats advocated eight years ago, it seems a little hard that they should be abused as 'assisted Republicans.' If anybody has sold out, it was the crowd who dropped their principles. We have not dropped ours. In my opinion Parker is going to be one of the worst beaten men in political history for the reason that he stands for nothing. He doesn't even pretend to have any principles. That such a man can be elected is an impossibility."

"The eastern Democrats forgot this. The American people have both mind and conscience. Their surrender of principle at St. Louis went beyond the limit of endurance. The Democrats and the people who followed them, and will not ratify it. The masses are rising in revolt, and the city politics may tremble for the future. The clouds are forming. As sure as right lives and God rules, there's going to be a storm."

"Jeffersonians everywhere, let us get together. Brothers in sentiment, let us be brethren in action. Divisions are what plutocracy wants; unity is what Democracy needs. Let us have the great movement which will bring us victory in 1908."

AMERICAN MINISTER

"The Turkish admiralty has been commanded to order a number of torpedo boats from American and European ship yards."
